News Release

Expressions of Interest sought for water meter roll-out

The three water and sewerage corporations – Southern Water, Ben Lomond Water and Cradle Mountain Water – are seeking expressions of interest from suppliers to assist the roll out of water meters in Tasmania.

A project team has been formed by the water corporations to roll-out water meters to unmetered homes and businesses across Tasmania by 30 June 2012. The project will also consider automated meter reading technology upgrades to existing meters as part of the assessment.

Advertisements have been placed in newspapers to seek interest from suppliers in the following areas:

- Meters
 - Manufacturers and suppliers of water meters
- Technology
 - Meter reading technology
 - Meter data management systems, for the provision of centralised collection and management of data
- Installation
 - Planning and design services for the installation program to meet the desired timeframe
 - The installation of water meters, including site reinstatement

Interested businesses are invited to view the advertisement and contact Hayley Kudra on 6333 9300.
