News Release

Tasmanian Water and Sewerage Chairman to end term in November

The Chairman of the Tasmanian Water and Sewerage Corporations, Mr Geoff Willis, today announced that he has elected to complete his term with the Corporations at the respective Annual General Meetings in November this year.

Under the Water and Sewerage Corporations Act, the owners will appoint a new Chairperson upon the recommendation of an expert selection committee.

That process will be undertaken over the next few months and Mr Willis plans to continue to chair the Corporation Boards while a new appointment is made.

The Directors of the Tasmanian Water and Sewerage Corporations have warmly expressed their gratitude to Mr Willis for his outstanding leadership and contribution to the establishment of the new businesses and extend their best wishes to him.
